The preliminary stage of these competitions will begin with these teams competing in a group format. In the preliminary stage, the teams will play against each other in a home and away format and then the top eight teams will advance to the playoff stage. The playoff stage of the Men's Premier League will be conducted in this way: 2 win out of 3 matches make the team advanced to the semi-final games.

In the 1402 Premier League season, the group stage matches will conclude after 26 weeks. In addition to the top eight teams advancing to the playoffs, the teams ranked 11th to 14th in the preliminary stage table will compete against each other to determine the two teams that will be relegated to the 1st division league.

In the first round of the Premier League playoffs of the current year, the top eight teams from the preliminary stage will face each other. The teams that win two out of three matches will advance to the next stage. In this stage, the first team will compete versus the eighth team, the second versus the seventh,

Introduction

Ultimately, the final match of the League will be held in just one competition and there will be no match for ranking, so the two defeated teams in the semifinals will share the third place.

Short History of Premier League

The first edition of the Iranian Clubs Volleyball Championship was held in (1975) 1354 under the name "Pasargad Cup" with the participation of 12 teams. Tehran Dukhaniaat, led by Hassan Kabiri, emerged as the champions of that edition.

The championship was held periodically with varying numbers of teams. It was held in (1976) 1355 with 12 teams. Next year, the number of teams was decreased to 10. Tehran Esteghlal, under the coaching of Farouh Fakhroдини, won the championship in both editions.

Some of the players in Dukhaniaat team during that period included Mahmoud Chaychi, Aziz Partovi, Qasem Tavakoli, Manouchehr Akhshin, Hamid Shaltoukchi, Amir Heydari, Vadoud Gogani, Sadegh Amiri and Nader Pakrou. Similarly, in Tehran Esteghlal, players like Mustafa Zoghi, Ahmad Pourkashian, Mehdi Saberpour, Rasoul Eivazi, Hassan Shamshiri, Mohsen Nakhaee, Ali Tazerouni, Majid Argi, and Reza Ghahve'e participated in these two editions.

After the victory of Islamic Revolution and the Iraq invasion of Iran, the Premier League was not held for 12 years until the fourth edition resumed in (1990) 1369 with the participation of 10 teams in a periodic format.

Bonyad Shahid team, under the coaching of Mehdi Saberpour and Hossein Pour Etemadi, became the champions for 2 subsequent years in 1369 and 1370.

Since the resumption of the championship in (1990) 1369 after a 12-year hiatus, the Iranian Volleyball Premier League has been continuously held. From (1992) 1371 to (1995) 1374 and (1997) 1376, these competitions were held with eight teams. However, the (2010) 1398 Premier League remained unfinished due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

In terms of the number of participating teams, the lowest number was in the twelfth edition in 1377 (1998) when the competition was held with seven teams. The highest number of teams was in the eighteenth edition in (2004) 1383 when the competition had 18 teams.

Paykan

The most prestigious team in the Premier League

Paykan remains the most prestigious volleyball team in Iran's Premier League Volleyball with 12 championships, making them the most successful team in the competition. They also have six runner-up titles and four bronze medals in their record. Paykan volleyball team has achieved the third-place title in the world and got the 1st title in Asian clubs championships. Paykan hopes to end its eight-year run and win the thirteenth championship title in 1402.

Sarmayeh Bank, Beem, Kaleh and Haraz Labaniyat Representing Mazandaran province, are the second most successful team in the Premier League. Teams from this province have won 10 medals, including two gold medals, two silver medals, and six bronze titles in these competitions.

Sarmayeh Bank has also won three Premier League championships and participated in the World Club Championships, where they finished seventh alongside Argentina in 2017.

Varamin's representative, previously known as Matin Varamin, made their debut in the Premier League in 1391 and won a silver medal. In 1392, becoming the men's champion of Iran. In 1397, the representative of this city, now named Varamin Municipality, became the champion of Iran for the second time. However, this year, Varamin does not have a representative in the Iranian Men's Premier League.

Sirjan Foolad, which returned to the Premier League after several years in 1398, won the championship in 1399 and participated in the Asian Men's Club Championships in 2021, where they became champions and won a ticket to Brazil for participating in World Clubs Championships.

Yazd Shahdab is the defender of championship title of the Men's Premier League, starting their participation in 1398. In 1401, in their fourth appearance in the League, they won the championship for the second time and aiming for a hat-trick of titles in 1402.

Sanaam with four championships, Esteghlal, Fajrsepah and Bonyad Shahid with two championships, Melli Bank, Qazvin Abgineh and Dukhaniyat with one championship are among the most prestigious teams of the Men's Premier League, although they have not participated in recent editions.

14 Teams got Championship in 35 Editions

Saipa is another experienced-old club in Iran volleyball that could achieve seven runner-up titles and two third-place during its presence in the Premier League.

Representatives from Urmia and Tabriz have also earned notable achievements in the top-tier volleyball league. The Urmia representative has obtained three runner-up titles and eight third-place, while the Tabriz representative with a silver medal and four third-place titles are in subsequent positions.

Despite their long-standing presence in the Premier Volleyball League, Saipa and Urmia Municipality are still trying for a gold medal and championship title in these competitions, hoping to fulfill their aspirations in the 2023 season.

With one unfinished season due to the COVID-19 crisis (1398), 14 teams have stood on the championship podium during these 35 editions.
